The Bend in the River

The Bend in the River portrays an aspirational lifestyle brand which exemplifies style and appeals to discerning consumers who want the good things in life - great taste coupled with contemporary, classic design. The Bend In the River takes its name from the majestic River Rhine at the beginning of the beautiful gorge section of the middle Rhine, a Unesco World Heritage Site. At this point it meanders its thoughtful way past the small town of Bingen, the home of The Bend In The River.
